

PATRICK FLANAGAN

Corporate Magician & Family Entertainer

Since 1988, Patrick Flanagan has been performing in and around the Chicago area. His warm personality, offbeat sense of humor, and masterful sleight-of-hand have charmed audiences in a variety of venues. Sounds of laughter and looks of amazement can be found throughout each of Patrick's performances. Patrick surrounds each magical effect with a clever and entertaining presentation that, if desired, can be tailored to party themes, promotional slogans, company logos, etc.

Over the years, Pat has been fortunate to share magic and performing tips with some of the very best. Frank Travis, Bob Brown, Jack Palumbo, Tom Glyda, Steve Marion, the late Norm Osborn, and the late Eddie Fields have played a significant role in Pat's magical education. He's learned the real magic lies in the relationship between the performer and the audience. While everyone experiences magic in a different way, as an artist, it is his desire to leave an audience spellbound and thoroughly entertained.

Cards, coins, flowers, ropes, fire, rings, and fish... yes, fish... are just some of the tools Patrick uses to create memorable moments that your guests will be talking about for years. Interactive... Hands on... Up close and personal entertainment that will enhance your guests' enjoyment and elevate your event to celebrity status!!!
