

The Falsettos

...are they for real??

...they begin the evening as your waitstaff...the audience is totally unsuspecting and enjoying their dinner reception. Then, suddenly, after a few comedic interchanges with guests and the rest of the staff, it is revealed that they are actually very prolific classical vocalists! This talented group of singers puts the seriousness and formality usually associated with classical music to the side, by incorporating a beautiful, yet comedic and highly interactive musical element that leaves guests begging for more!

Popular classical songs featured in this performance are:

O Solé Mio
Con Te Partiro (Bocelli)
Volare
La Donna é Mobile (Rigoletto)
Brindisi (La traviata)
That's Amore

This act is comprised of 3-4 male and female vocalists and can easily be customized to fit your event format. Vocalists perform to CD tracks and are dressed in your venue's waitstaff attire and/or classical formalwear. This show concept works perfectly for audiences young and old, from the most casual to the sophisticated.

Chicago's best kept "secret!" The Falsettos...are they for real??